Bears Against Drugs Safety Program

The NCTA has Bears Against Drugs (BAD) Public Relations Officers across the state. The Officers are available to make presentations to school age children, civic groups, daycares, churches, etc. The programs include education about Stranger Danger, Seatbelt and air bag safety, respect, discipline, drug and alcohol abuse, and much more. The Officer has numerous items to give out, including coloring books, shoestrings, badge stickers, panda bears, and other gifts.

A Bears Against Drugs Public Relations Officer is available for personal appearances by contacting the office of the NCTA

The North Carolina Troopers Association is a private, voluntary organization that is made up of Active and Retired Employees of the North Carolina State Highway Patrol.

NCTA is very appreciative of your support however, please be aware that contributions are not tax deductible as charitable donations

North Carolina Troopers Association

Proudly serving the men and women of the NC Highway Patrol since 1977 many of you know about the great work done by the NCTA for its members and the citizens of North Carolina; Your sponsorship will assist in providing us with the means to continue this proud tradition.

From providing refreshments to Troopers on special assignments at the NC State Fair to helping a widow during her most desperate time of need to providing donations to Troopers who have had their homes destroyed by fire, tornadoes or floods the NCTA is Always ready when a brother or sister is in need. We make hospital visits to children, wives and Troopers themselves who are sick; many meals have been taken to hospitals to ensure that the parents don't have to leave their child's side.

There are also many other programs that the NCTA sponsors geared towards the public such as our Bears Against Drugs program or something as simple as bringing Santa to local churches or hospitals for the children's delight.

With your assistance we can continue these programs and do even more in the future.

Your contribution benefits the active and retired members of the NCTA.
